

First Responders & Autism: Training Symposium

This training will better equip first responders in recognizing behavioral characteristics and high risks associated with autism and using specialized response techniques to increase safety for all.

June 16-18, 2010

Montgomery Alabama

Montgomery Renaissance Hotel & Spa
201 Tallapoosa Street, Montgomery, AL 36104

Admission: FREE

On-line Pre-registration: Required

Seating: Limited

Presented by: Dennis Debbaudt

Internationally Recognized Expert, Author, & and Parent of an adult child with autism

Discipline Track 1: Law Enforcement, Fire Service, and Social Workers*

Wednesday, June 16 10:00 AM – 3:00 PM Lunch Provided

Discipline Track 2: Emergency Medical Services and Nursing*

Thursday, June 17 10:00 AM – 3:00 PM Lunch Provided

Open Session: Autism Community, Educators, and Others Interested

Friday, June 18 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM Snacks Provided

*CEUs will only be approved for day for your discipline (Monday or Tuesday) and optional Friday session

In Cooperation with

On-line Pre-registration required at:

<http://www.adph.org/Extranet/Forms/Form.asp?formID=2400>

For additional information or questions please call Dr. Caroline Gomez, 334-353-7197
State Autism Coordinator • Alabama Department of Mental Health